7. New Business

Roles and Responsibilities Mr. Ramos asked Ms. Land to read from the LSC Bylaws. At no place in the bylaws does it say that the LSC gets involved in the day to day school responsibilities. It has come to Mr. Ramos’ attention that members of the councils are reaching out to teachers at the campuses to get their feelings and sense of how things are going. Teachers have come to President Ramos that this makes them uncomfortable. Please reach out to Ms. Bancroft if you have questions. Non-teacher representatives should not contact teachers directly about LSC business. Our teacher representatives can reach out to teachers directly should it be necessary.
