- BAC (Bilingual Advisory Council)

Hennessy read report from: Ogden East has 125 English learners with 30 different language backgrounds. This year approximately 90 new students were screened for their English proficiency levels.

English Learners after school tutoring program will be available from November 29 through April 27 (for 20 weeks): Tuesdays and Wednesdays 3:45- 4:45 pm.

The goal of the program is to provide English Learning students, in grade 2-5, Bilingual and ESL content support to improve their academic outcomes on ACCESS. To register, email Mrs. Ginsburg, yginsburg@cps.edu

A flyer will be sent to EL parents.

BAC meeting to be held on December 6th from 8:30-9:30 in room 103. We will watch a webinar "My Child is an English Learner. What does that Mean?" This is designed specifically for parents of English learners. Parents/Guardians of English learners are welcome to join us.

- Diverse Learner

Hopp will forward an email to LSC from Raise Your Hand. RYH is hoping to get individual LSC members support for a petition to support Special Education Funding reform.

- Principal

Math instruction -Sarah Schneeberg, PYP coordinator, is offering after school professional development every Monday through December. Teacher turnout has been high. Sarah shared new instruction activities mainly around math. In the new year, Sarah will begin professional development for science.

State of the School-Ogden East Campus Options for Knowledge program-for school year 2017-2018, we have the option to select students off of a waiting list which parents can use to apply students through a lottery process. This gives Ogden the option for East Campus to even out enrollment before the 10th day.

CIWP

Strategy 1- Restorative justice coordinator is working at both campuses but mainly at East 3 days a week.

Strategy 2 -teaching and instructional strategies. As mentioned by PPLC report, teachers are shifting practices to be focused on IB.

Strategy 3-Both campuses uploading all units to software, ManageBac.
