

Ashlyn Wheeler is an editor, educator, and published writer living in Chicago. Her favorite hobbies include hanging out with her two cats, arts and crafts, and on most Saturdays, you can find her painting pottery on Armitage. Before Right At School, she was a Writing Instructor and Program Manager working with post-release and justice-involved young adults on writing personal stories, learning life skills, and addressing struggles faced upon reentry. She is excited to be back at Ogden International this year!

Adam Butler grew up in Lincolnwood, IL where he attended Niles West High School playing baseball and hockey. After graduating high school he continued his education at Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, IA. He played four years of college baseball and got his degree in secondary education with a focus in Physical Education and athletic coaching. Adam began his professional career in Iowa City teaching PE and coaching junior high basketball and football as well as high school and college baseball. He is currently Head Sophomore Baseball coach and Head '16in softball coach at Whitney Young High. He also working at Illinois Baseball Academy and coaches a summer baseball team in Glencoe, IL. He will be holding the Program Manager position at Ogden International.

Karen Cardona is currently a student at Harold Washington College who plans to transfer to National Louis University to receive her Bachelor's in Early Education. Her favorite hobbies include reading & volunteer at UI Health in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit. Before Right At School, she was an Information Security Assistant at Kirkland & Ellis Law Firm. There, she provided assistance to the Information Securities Team on several projects using several different tools including html, programming & database reporting. She is immensely excited to be a part of Ogden International this year!

Mary Kathleen "Kit" Ryan has a Master's of Education in Instructional Leadership – Policy Studies from University of Illinois-Chicago. Her coursework there included education policy, improving educational organizations, adolescent psychology, the school-to-prison pipeline, globalization and education, educational law, and the psychology of learning. Her undergraduate degree is in Theater, with a minor in Psychology, from Southern Illinois University. She has lived and worked in Chicago for 7 years now, mostly doing stage management, directing, and similar work in the local theater scene. She also works with her family's educational charity, the Garwin Family Foundation, on issues related to budgeting, fundraising, reviewing scholarship applications, and research. Kit's hobbies include baking, board games, and reading (history and sci-fi, mostly). Her go-to karaoke song is "Fortunate Son" by CCR.

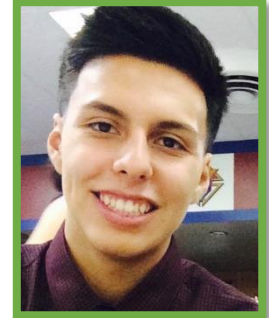

Nelson Schneider is an educator, illustrator, and animator born in Germany. Hobbies of his include sewing, cooking and playing guitar. For the most part he draws during his free time, as he enjoys practicing different styles and media adding more variety to his pieces. Before Right at School Nelson worked as a German Teacher for young children. In addition, in the summer he was an art instructor for a summer camp. He is excited to begin his first year at Ogden International with Right at School!

Karina Cruz Tajaran - I'm a Los Angeles native and a relative newcomer to Chicago with years of experience in the field of education and art.

Adrian Magana - I love to watch and play sports. I like playing video games. I am Hispanic. I grew up on the south side of Chicago. My favorite part about right at school is playing soccer and football with the kids. Hablo español.

Hi I'm Mr. Julian Castro. I have a background in Fine Arts and love riding bicycles. In my career have worked with students from five different continents and over 40 different countries. I speak English and Spanish and I am an IB graduate. I am very happy to be here at Ogden International!

Enjoli Jackson - I am a Educator/ Coach here at Right at School, my Favorite color is red, favorite food is Hot wings, I enjoy Reading and Shopping and everything to do with fashion, I also like to spend free time doing things with my Daughters I really Love being a mom, and helping with the youth at my Church. My Dream is and always is to become a well-known Fashion Stylist And just a Great person overall.

Felicia Miller - I am looking forward to the 2017-18 School yr with RAS peers, students and Ogden School staff. I've worked professionally with children for 18yrs, at Abraham Lincoln Ctr I worked as a lead servicing children with mental and physical disabilities from 2000-2010, from 2010 - 2015 I sat on the Board of Black Wall Street as a Facilitator For The Youth where I founded and a youth based entrepreneurship program called YETE (Youth Empowerment Through Entrepreneurship). One of my passions is working with and giving back to the youth. Some of my favorite games are Johnny Johnny Woo, double dutch jump roping, volleyball, Simon says, kickball, I Love arts & crafts as well as learning new things. I Love using my creativity and stepping outside my comfort zone to elevate to new heights.

Other Right At School Staff/Subs for recess and Right Club include:

Amber Woodard

Joy Harris

Steven Harris

Janique Walker

Darnell Woods

Christian Creasy

Angelica Anderson