1st semester +

½ credit for the 2nd semester =

1 credit for course

ATTENDANCE MATTERS- Being at school on time, every day makes a huge difference. Did you know that:
 - Each week of absence per semester in 9th grade lowers the likelihood of graduating by 25 percentage points
 - Students who have strong attendance have: Higher test scores, a better likelihood of being on-track in high school, higher chance of graduating, better grades, increased college acceptance & completion. Show up and succeed!

L.I.F.E.- The Learning Internationalism through Field Experiences program allows Ogden International students to engage in international exchange programs through project based learning requirements. This out-of-school curriculum experience will complement and enhance the classroom experience. Here's what Ogden's LIFE has planned this school-year:

- Milan, Italy (April 3-12, 2017)
Contact Mr. Madigan and Ms. Strait

- Hamburg, Germany (April 5-14, 2017)
Contact Ms. Eisenbaum and Mr. Baker

OGDEN BLOG- Teachers, do you have something that is happening in your classroom, department, or grade level? Students, do you have an opinion or insight you'd like to share? Please contact Dr. Beyer at msbeyer@cps.edu to learn how you can help contribute to Ogden's blog: <http://ogden.cps.edu/theogdenblog>

ATTENDANCE REMINDER- Students below 92% attendance cannot participate in sports, clubs, or any other extra-curricular activity.

OGDEN FUNDRAISING EVENT- Parents and guardians are invited to attend Ogden's WINTER THAW on Tuesday, January 31, 2017 at Le Colonial Restaurant, 937 N. Rush St. from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. $50 per person. Guests who are at least 21 years of age can enjoy appetizers, beer, wine, soft drinks and a cocktail!
